HSA Contribution Maximums: Health Savings Account (HSA) contribution maximums are determined by the IRS and are no longer based on your deductible. For more information, please visit the U.S. Department of the Treasury website: <http://www.treasury.gov/resource-center/faqs/Taxes/Pages/Health-Savings-Accounts.aspx>.

Allowable Catchup Contributions: If you are age 55 or older, and not enrolled in Medicare, you are eligible for a catch-up contribution of $1,000. You are eligible for the entire $1,000 contribution regardless of the month you turned 55. If your spouse is age 55 or older and not enrolled in Medicare, your spouse must maintain his/her own HSA to be eligible for a catch-up contribution. If an Account Holder enrolls in Medicare mid-year, catch-up contributions should be prorated.

Taxable Income: Funds contributed in excess of your contribution limit are subject to penalty and tax unless the excess and earnings are withdrawn by you prior to the due date, including any extensions, for filing your Federal Income Tax return. You should consult a qualified tax advisor in connection with your excess contribution removal.
